ALTERNATIVE FAMILY LIVING

Alternative Family Living is a home-based care option where individuals with disabilities live with a trained Host Provider in a family setting. It's a way to receive personalized support in a family's home while building independence and life skills.

WHO IT'S FOR

- Individuals under the NC Innovations Waiver who need residential support.
- Families looking for a home-like alternative to group homes or institutions.
- Caregivers who want to open their home as AFL Host Providers.

HOW IT WORKS

WHO QUALIFIES

✓ NC Innovations Waiver – Residential Supports (Levels I-IV) Recipients.

✓ LTCS Approved Recipients
